FEDS WILL NOT GO INTO COURT TODAY

Weeghman Says Suit Will Not Be Withdrawn Until Peace Pact Is Signed.

COMMITTEE WILL CONFER WITH JUDGE K. M. LANDIS

of Agreement Would Constitute Contempt of Court.

CHICAGO, December 20 .- Both Keen Addington, counsel for the Federal League in its anti-trust suit against organized base ball, and George W Miller, American League attorney, were rell of the national association, will represent organized base ball at the peace meeting to be held in Cincinnati. Others, however, may attend. Assurances that the final details to bring about peace would be arranged at the meeting were reiterated by President Johnson and others today.

To Confer With Judge.

Mr. Weeghman said that it was the plan of the conference to appoint a committee to visit Judge Landis, before whom the Federal League's antitrust suit is pending, and ascertain whether the signing of a peace pact would offend the judge or render the participants liable for contempt of participants hable for contempt of court.

"The suit will not be withdrawn until the peace pact is signed and sealed," said Mr. Weeghman, "and the committee which is to visit Judge Landis will ask him to withhold his decision pending the outcome of the Cincinnati meeting."

the ballot box across the sea will of itself solve the question of preparedness. This was the declaration of Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt of New York, newly elected president of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, before the mass meeting held yesterday afternoon at Poll's Theater, the climax of the forty-seventh annual convention of that association. Dudley Field Malone, collector of the port of New York, in his speech, congrulated the suffragists of the country for the valiant fight they are making to be freed from the chains of bondage. saying that "America to-bendage saying that "America to-bendage will be called upon to redeem the electorate which she can call to her service, for it may be that our country will be called upon to redeem the pledges made in behalf of democracy itself."

Those on the Platform.

The theater was filled with delegates to the convention, alternates, suffragists generally, and their guests and riends. In addition to the speakers a number of prominent men and women Mr. Dyer of Missouri Says Repubhad seats on the platform, including Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of the President: Miss Helen Woodrow Bones, the President's cousin; Mrs. Ida Huster Harper, Secretary Lane and Mrs. Lane Senator Moses S. Clapp of Minnesota, Senator Moses S. Clapp of Minnesota, Senator John F. Shafroth of Colorado, Senator Asle J. Gronna of North Dakota and Representative John E. Raker of California. Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, honorary president of the association, introduced the speakers, and herself delivered the brief closing address.

Representative Dyer of Missouri, republican, believes now that the Missouri delegates to the Chicago convention will vote for Senator Weeks as the republican presidential nominee. Mr. Dyer's prediction is at variance with the views of many political prophets, who think that the Massachusetts man
